On March 12, 2020, in response to the increasing threat posed by the Coronavirus, California Governor Newsom issued Executive Order N-25-20 which suspends meeting requirements of the Brown Act and Bagley-Keene Act.

The order authorizes state and local bodies to hold public meetings by teleconference and to make public meetings accessible telephonically or otherwise electronically to all members of the public seeking to attend and to address the local or state agencies.

On June 11, 2021, the Governor issued Executive Order N-08-21 to begin the winding down of 58 executive orders, The provision for waiving all requirements in both the Bagley-Keene Act and the Brown Act expressly or impliedly requiring the physical presence of members, the clerk or other personnel of the body, or of the public as a condition of participation in or quorum for a public meeting remains in place until June 30, 2021, upon which it will expire subject to individual conditions.”
